Q) What is the policy for large race class participation?

A) If a class has over 150 qualified participants who make the call for first round of eliminations, that class will pay back to the eights round an amount equal to the entry fee of that class.

Q) What happens if I miss a class call-up during eliminations?

A) You're disqualified as a no-show. Your opponent gets a bye run.

Q) Is there a tentative schedule?

A) Yes, posted on our web site, www.matslv.com

Q) Does my car have to have a tech inspection if I am just doing time trials?

A) Yes, any car going down the track must have a tech inspection.

Q) Can I sign up online?

A) Go to www.matslv.com and then look for our secured online store.

Q) Can show cars make time trial passes?

A) Yes, register for the Time Only Class, which has a separate entrance fee.

Q) Is there RV parking overnight for the weekend?

A) Yes, $175 in advance, $185 at the gate.

This does not include an event admission, which is a separate cost. RV parking does not include hookups; your unit must be self-contained. (Dry Camping)

Q) Can I leave my trailer at the event, so I don't have to take it to the hotel at night?

A) Yes, sign up for Weekend trailer parking: $25 as a pre-entry, $30 at the gate. All racers receive one tow trailer parking with their Race Class entry. Additional racer pit parking is available for $35 (pre-entry) and $45 at the gate.

Q) Can I bring my MuscleCar to the event and display it and not have it judged?

A) Yes, just pre-register the vehicle for the Fun Field ($40) Gate registration is $50. For the Fun Field, you can drive your MuscleCar in and park in a specified parking area. Includes one weekend pass.

Q) If my car show class has over 15 participants, will it be split?

A) Yes, it will be split into brands: Example Plymouth, Dodge, Chrysler, and so on.

Q) What if my car is the only car in its class.

A) You will be given the option by the Judging Staff to combine your entry with others or be given the option to be display only. Single Entry entries will not automatically be granted an award because they are a lone entry for the categories.
